Just Jazz

October 2012

Hi Friends —

In 1982 my very good friend, Toronto-based soprano saxophonist-flutist Jane Bunnett, with her husband and musical partner, trumpeter-producer Larry Cramer, visited Cuba for the first time. She immediately fell in love with the country's rich, challenging, and often overlooked musical traditions and over the next thirty years has built her career at the intersection of Cuban music and jazz.

Jane's concerts and recordings have brought long overdue international attention to such important and influential Cuban artists as singer Merceditas Valdés, percussionists Guillermo Barreto, Pancho Quinto, and Tata Güines, pianist Hilario Durán, and the ten-voice choir Grupo Vocal Descendann, as well as introducing emerging talents like pianist David Virelles. She has won four Canadian Juno Awards — for Spirits of Havana (1993), Ritmo + Soul (2001), Radio Guantanamo (2006), and Embracing Voices (2009) — has been nominated nine other times, and has received two Grammy nominations.

On Saturday, October 20, Jane will be marking her thirty-year association with Cuban music with a major concert at Toronto's Koerner Hall, featuring her Spirits of Havana band, the Afro-Cuban folkloric ensemble Iyá Iré, and master Cuban pianist Chucho Valdés. I'll be there that evening and if you're in the Toronto area — or feel like making a trip to that fun and pleasant city — I hope you will, too. I am sure it will be a night of great music that you'll remember always.

Stay cool and keep list'nin',
Bob

NEW & RECOMMENDED CDS

Fred Hersch: Alive at the Vanguard \(Palmetto\): Over the past decades pianist Fred Hersch's trio recordings have been more than "state of the art," they have raised the art of the piano trio to an entirely new level. This live 2-CD set by Hersch's current trio — with John Hébert on bass and Eric McPherson on drums — filled, as it is, with Hersch's original tunes plus his personal and inventive takes on both the American Popular Songbook and jazz standards, does it again.

Dominic J. Marshall: Icaros \(F-IRE\): This trio CD by Scottish pianist Dominic J. Marshall, an emerging artist who is building a well-deserved reputation on Europe's jazz scene, is a real find. Currently a resident of Amsterdam, Marshall, joined by Holland's Tobias Nijboer on bass and Kaspars Kurdeko on drums, presents a program of rich and evocative original compositions inspired by the spirits and songs of the Amazon rain forest.

Dion Parson & 21st Century Band: Live at Dizzy's Club Coca-Cola Volume 2 \(DP21CB\): Comprising musicians from the Virgin Islands, drummer Dion Parson's 21st Century Band has one of the most unique sounds and concepts in jazz today. This live double CD — featuring the tuneful compositions of Parson and saxophonist Ron Blake — fuses the delightfully infectious tones and rhythms of the Caribbean with uncompromisingly swinging contemporary jazz.

Bobby Sanabria: Multiverse \(Jazzheads\): This ambitious big band project from drummer-percussionist Bobby Sanabria weaves a multiplicity of traditions, influences, and spirits into a monumental and cohesive multicultural statement. Large-scale works pay homage to elders and ancestors ("¡Que Viva Candido!", "Afro-Cuban Jazz Suite for Ellington," "From Havana to Harlem — 100 Years of Mario Bauzá"), while every track proclaims, "Listen, learn, and live!"
